

MoveInSync anti-bribery section

MoveInSync is committed to conducting its business ethically, as well as complying with all applicable laws such as Prevention of Corruption Act 1988 among others. This includes compliance with anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-theft, and anti-fraud laws.

MoveInSync has a zero-tolerance policy towards bribery and corruption. MoveInSync employees and others working on its behalf shall NOT offer, promise, or/and give a bribe to anyone, and shall NOT request, agree to accept, or take a bribe from anyone.

MoveInSync has in place anti-corruption measures to maintain its high ethical standards and protect its reputation against any allegations of bribery and corruption. It is MoveInSync's policy to compete fairly. We want to win business because of the quality and competitiveness of our products and services. We will not attempt to win on any other basis. We seek to influence others wherever practical by setting an example and openly refusing to undertake or support bribery as a way of doing business anywhere in the world. Any employee found not complying to the policies would be liable to the disciplinary process of MoveInSync.

Any concerns of misconduct by employees, agents, vendors, partners and other connected third parties of MoveInSync with reference to bribery, fraud and corruption may be reported to risk@moveinsync.com OR to the risk hotline at (080)45889090. Any information provided shall be treated as highly confidential and anonymity of the reporting individual/entity shall be ensured.
